

Biography

Gilly Lovel are an up-and-coming Indie-Rock band hailing from North London, who mix driving back beats, anthemic melodies, and rich vocals reminiscent of bands such as Foals, Glass Animals, and Catfish And The Bottle-Men. 2018 has started brightly for the band, with an upcoming festival debut scheduled at 'SHINDIGNATION', London, and single releases planned for later in the year.

Starting out as three mates who met at college, Gilly Lovel formed around its original members Angus, James, and Alex, with Chris joining a year later. After releasing their debut EP 57 in April 2016, Gilly Lovel went on to tear up the London Indie-Rock scene with gigs in and around the capital, namely through established promoters 'Dead Or Alive Presents'.

Musically, Gilly Lovel has a good foundation to build upon through a shared musical background made up of different genres, from Punk and Rock'n'Roll, to Funk, and Jazz. The band's lyrics are often based on subjects such as past romances and struggles with mental health. With a firm grasp on their music, aesthetic, and all round attitude, Gilly Lovel are focusing on putting out awesome tunes and performing killer shows across the country.
